

1. Introduction

The International Iberian Nanotechnology Laboratory ('INL') is an international organisation created to promote interdisciplinary research on nanotechnology and nanoscience. Aiming to become a vital part of Europe's scientific area, the INL provides a high-tech research environment addressing major challenges in nanomedicine, nanotechnology applied to environmental and food control nanoelectronics, and nanomachines and molecular manipulation at nanoscale. The cornerstones of INL's mission are: assuring world-class research excellence in its areas of activity; creating strong scientific communities in the field of nanoscience and nanotechnology, in close liaison with global-scale laboratories; developing collaboration between universities and industries, as well as between public and private sectors, training researchers, and contributing to the development of a skilled work force for the nanotechnology industry; organizing and sponsoring European and international co-operation in nanoscience and nanotechnology research; setting up intellectual property rules to make the results of its work and know-how available, enable the technology transfer and protect its inventions; developing systems to prevent and master nanotechnology risks.

INL respects the privacy of the personal data of Members of the Personnel, Visitors and Partners and is committed with its protection.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this data processing operation is: (i) to enable the management of service requests to INL User Facilities (ii) when applicable, the creation of a user account in INL Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS) (iii) when applicable, the issue of customer satisfaction surveys (iv) when applicable, support the conduction of the procedure of access to INL premises.

3. Description of the data processing operation

The Personal Data is stored in a database of INL named 'INL User Facilities'. INL may request the consent to incorporate the personal data into 'INL Contact Database'. To this end each person shall be contacted individually with the aim of providing information about the aforementioned database and requesting his or her express consent.

4. Data processed

The data processed, including personal data, may contain the following: name, place of work/home institution, e-mail address, identification document number and country of issue.

5. Controller of the processing operation

The INL is responsible for the management of the data processed.

6. Legal basis

INL is an intergovernmental organisation, entrusted with a number of privileges and immunities necessary to fulfil its mission, including the inviolability of INL premises and archives. The submission of personal data is required to contact and receive information regarding the activities developed by the INL. Therefore, not providing the required personal data or not accepting the privacy statement concerning this data processing operation will render it impossible to register, submit or receive information regarding said activities.
